

Teaching Truth

provides us with a framework

to collectively understand historical inequities

and how they're perpetuated today

HEGEMONY:

Political, cultural, and moral norms established by those in power in society and upheld by those subordinated who experience them as "common sense" or "normal".

Image from ARISE's Ethnic Studies courses, which cover the concepts of power, privilege, and oppression; lessons on the war in Southeast Asia; and current social issues the Southeast Asian community is facing

see
STUDENTS FOR EDUCATIONAL EQUITY

Teaching Truth

fuels us

to come together

to solve

deeply

complex

inequities.

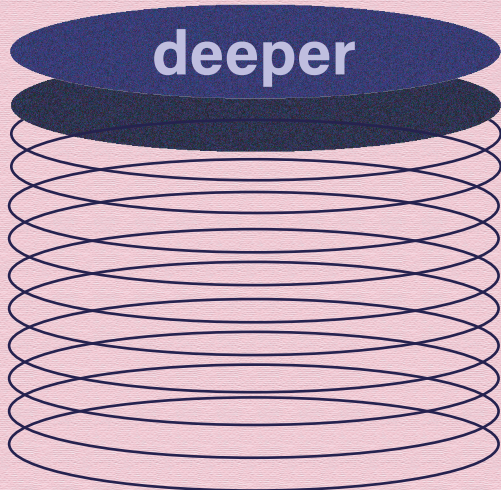

Poster about OurSchoolsPVD created by ARISE youth for youth leaders orientation workshop.

This is part of grounding our young people as well as a functional update of what ARISE has been up to.

Teaching Truth

equips us with a

analysis

of complex
layered nuanced
intersecting

issues

in the world

Image: ARISE & PSU
youth activists leading the Cook v Raimondo
legal fight to make education a constitutional
right in the USA

